

REGINA DUDEK DECORATIVE WIRE WREATH WORKSHOP

SATURDAY 11TH NOVEMBER

Whitelaw St Meeniyán 11AM – 3.30PM

Spend the day creating wire wreaths using a variety of wire and techniques. The wreaths can be rustic, pretty or anything in between!

Regina Dudek has been creating wire art works for over twenty years. She will guide students through the design and construction techniques. This workshop is suitable for the beginner as well as the more experienced student.

Students are encouraged to bring along items such as buttons, beads, chandelier crystals, keys, and rusty bits or treasures.

Regina will provide wire (blackened steel, rusty steel, galvanised and copper)

Tools (wire cutters, pliers, safety glasses) Students can also bring their own pliers if preferred.

Several wreaths should be completed during the workshop.

Cost: $85 paid prior to workshop. No fee for items used on the day.
